Alumni Association Membership Policy

Overview

The University of Alberta Alumni Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to furthering the excellence of the University of Alberta by fostering an enduring and mutually beneficial relationship between the University and its alumni. The goals of the Association and its governing body, Alumni Council, are supported by the Office of Alumni Affairs.

Purpose

To affirm the powers of the University of Alberta Alumni Association, as outlined in the Association’s Bylaws.

To indicate how membership in the Alumni Association is granted.

To recognize that groups of alumni can further organize into groups based on geographic location or special interests.

POLICY

The University of Alberta Alumni Association is a duly constituted non-profit, volunteer organization governed by the Bylaws of the Association.

All graduates of the University of Alberta automatically and without fee become life members of the University of Alberta Alumni Association.

Alumni of the University of Alberta can form alumni branches and alumni chapters by way of the due process set out in the Bylaws of the Alumni Association.

By way of due process set out in the bylaws of the Association, Alumni Council can withdraw recognition of an alumni branch or chapter.
