Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to set out the position of the University on canvassing and solicitation by non-student and non-university affiliated persons or groups.

Note: Canvassing and solicitation by students and student groups is addressed in the University of Alberta Code of Student Behavior (Section 30.3.4 and 30.3.5) and in the Student Groups Procedure.

POLICY

The University of Alberta acknowledges that members of the university community benefit by being exposed to products, information and opportunities provided by non-university affiliated members. At the same time, the University is responsible for taking reasonable steps to ensure the safety of all members of the University community and its visitors, ensuring the proper functioning of the University, protecting and managing its property, and exercising good stewardship of public resources. In the context of these responsibilities, the University may permit canvassing and solicitation by non-university affiliates. The University reserves the right to approve or deny canvassing and solicitation activities by non-university affiliates or to make its approval subject to conditions.

Any activity taking place on University property must comply with applicable laws and University policies.

Persons or groups engaging in canvassing and solicitation are responsible for all costs occasioned by these activities, including any costs that may be required to mitigate anticipated or unanticipated risks. Where the University incurs costs as a result of these activities, the person or group will be required to pay/reimburse the University for those actual costs. For example, persons and groups may be required to obtain insurance, the presence of security or other measures as a condition of approval. The costs associated with these items will be the responsibility of the person or group.

The University values the expression of diverse points of view. Where the canvassing or solicitation activity complies with applicable laws and University policies and procedures, the content or subject-matter of the activity will not be a factor in approving or denying requests to engage in canvassing or solicitation activities.

Canvassing and solicitation by non-student, non-university affiliated persons or groups on University owned, leased or controlled properties requires the written permission of the Office of the Vice-President (Finance and Administration).
